EULAR European Certificate of Rheumatology - Live Examination

Take part in the examination for the EULAR ‘European Certificate of Rheumatology’ as part of the newly launched EULAR School of Rheumatology digital platform. The EULAR European Certificate of Rheumatology will provide evidence of professional knowledge and competence and help to harmonise the quality of rheumatology training across Europe.

In this 3rd year (the pilot exam took place in Madrid in 2017) we plan to run the examination for maximum 80 candidates at the EULAR congress in Madrid on June 2019.

The Live Examination is open for individuals with the following qualifications:

- Rheumatologist or
- Physician (specialised in rheumatology) or
- Fellow in rheumatology training or
- Candidates will be rheumatologists or rheumatology trainees who have completed the EULAR online course on Rheumatic Diseases.

If you fulfil all the requirements, please upon application submit the required documents (eg. Certification proofs, letter from the hospital/university stating your specialisation, etc…)

Application cost: 50 EUR

The details for the exam are as follows:

- A two-hour examination by 120 best of 5 MCQs will be in English using web connection from the candidates own laptop.
- The examination will assess the knowledge base for rheumatologists as defined by the UEMS curriculum
- Date: Saturday, 16th June, Madrid
- Time: 09:30 - 11:30 sharp
- Location: EULAR Congress centre Madrid
- Timings:
  - 09:00 – 09:30: Examination check-in and computer check
  - 09:30 – 11:30: Examination
- Room/Location:
  - Venue: IFEMA Feria de Madrid, Avenida del Partenon, 28042 Madrid, Spain
  - Room: TBC
- Certificates: downloadable upon log in to your user account
- Results of examination: TBC

On the day of the exam, participants are required to sign in at the location from 1 hour to 30 minutes before the start of the exam and are requested to bring and present a photo ID document to confirm their identity.

If a candidate leaves the room before the end of the exam, he/she will not be authorised the re-enter the room nor access his/her laptop (except to use the washroom facilities and only if accompanied by an invigilator).

Note: Participants must be an attendee of the EULAR Congress, otherwise, email education@eular.org to apply for a day pass for the Live Examination entry. We cannot compensate you for your travel or hotel costs associated with attending the EULAR Congress. As places are limited please apply early to avoid disappointment.